

Dawn Easter (Alice Cribbins) been a proud member of the NoneSuch Playmakers for more than a decade. She is retired and enjoys spending time with her soon to be husband and their two poodles. She also has two adult children that she is immensely proud of. Dawn's hobbies include working in her yard and caring for her ridiculous amounts of house plants. She enjoys painting, thrift stores and all things paranormal.

Timothy Carpenter (Walter Nix) is a longtime member of both the Dewey Decimal Players and the NoneSuch Playmakers. He began theatre in the 2013 with the NoneSuch Playmakers production of "A Christmas Carol." He continued with Angela Llewellyn's Young Actors Workshop program at the Mount Airy Public Library, and then with the Dewey Decimal Players. Offstage, Timothy enjoys hanging out with his friends and making some groovy jams with his band.

Jonathan Carpenter (Langdon Baker) is a veteran of the Dewey Decimal Players and the NoneSuch Playmakers. Recent roles with the Playmakers include "The Golden Dawn Murders" and "Spellbinders." He is glad to be back on the boards alongside friends and family for "Paper Detectives." Offstage, Jonathan resides in Winston-Salem. Break a leg, one and all!

Brian Greene (Frank Butterfield) Swordsman, scholar, football linebacker, and inventor of the first automatic carpet puller, he is not in the least. He hopes to remember his lines in this mysterious tale in the hopes that he won't be very bad. Brian is lucky enough to call everyone in these casts a friend and even more lucky to be loved by two wonderful sons, Keaton and Lucas. Thanks to his amazing mom and dad for loving each other enough to give him life and support him in stumbling through these shows as gracefully as possible. Enjoy the show! If you don't, my name is really Roy Flinchum.

Olivia Jessup (Dorothy Baker, Lydia Lang) is going on her 14th year working with the NoneSuch Playmakers, and for some reason they keep inviting her back. When not on stage, Olivia attempts to learn the intricacies of football and hockey under the guidance of her younger brother. She sends best wishes to her fellow cast members. Break a leg, everyone!

Christine Werner Booher (Lois Butterfield) lives in Elkin. She has performed in numerous plays and musicals, both in her home town and in Mount Airy. Christine is honored to be part of such a talented cast and crew, and she hopes our production of "Paper Detectives" can provide a few goosebumps this Halloween season.

Meet the Casts

Angela Bryant (OA) (Costume Coordinator, Miss Miranda) is the proud mother of five very talented and wonderful children and the wife of the equally talented and wonderful Lane Bryant. She’s thrilled to be doing another play with her NoneSuch family. While not performing, you may find OA with her head in a book or chasing the aforementioned children. Please enjoy the show.

Madison Mallory (Lorna Deal) is excited to return to the None-Such Playmakers’ stage in this show. Madison was most recently seen in the role of Audrey Quick in last summer’s production of “Hicksville.” This NC State alumnus has been involved in local theatre for eleven years, and is so incredibly thankful for the very talented actors and friends she has surrounded herself with along the way.

Rowan Bunton (Bob Zarinsky) is a student at Mt. Airy High School and an announcer at radio stations WPAQ and WSYD. Among his other accomplishments, Rowan is co-founder of the Mt. Airy Chess Club at the Mount Airy Public Library. He has participated in local theatre as a member of the ALways Deweys and the NoneSuch Playmakers since 2019.

Toby Bunton (Albert Fish) was born in North Carolina but has deep roots in the mountains of Eastern Tennessee. His poetry has appeared in Winston Salem Writers’ POETRY IN PLAIN SIGHT PROGRAM, The Heron Clan publication, and several anthologies for Old Mountain Press. His poem, “Mowing Mayberry”, appeared as a finalist for Winston Salem Writers-Flying South’s 10th Anniversary Anthology. Toby lives with his family in Mt. Airy, NC.

Jessica Llewellyn Wood (Rachel Nodder) began her journey with the NoneSuch Playmakers in 2009. Some of her favorite roles include Annelle in “Steel Magnolias”, “All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten” & dancing in C  ilidhs. She is more comfortable using her organizational skills behind the scenes as the stage manager. Outside of theatre she has the most loving family. Her husband, the love of her life, Sean. Her daughters, Alex, Eryn & Emma. Her parents, Cleve and Vicki. She has an amazing church family and is very active in her church where she teaches the children’s classes. She thanks God for this incredible life and the wonderful friends she has made throughout the years as a NoneSucher. Most of all she is thankful for the time spent with her partner in all shenanigans. Angela, until we meet again, I’ll lock my doors.
